

Mark joined the Board of MHTL in 2017 and assumed the role of Chair in 2021 in addition to being a Trustee of Migrant Help since 2017. He brings significant marketing, strategy and business development expertise to Migrant Help following an international career that has seen him lead operations across the globe – Asia, Middle East, US, UK and Europe. In recent years his focus has been on business transformation both as a global corporate leader and currently as a consultant. This experience is augmented by his early training and career in youth, community and education sectors and his roles with UK based charities.

Anna joined Migrant Help in 2018 as Director of their social enterprise Clear Voice Interpreting Services. She became Director of Strategy and Engagement in 2020 and her role is to progress the Migrant Help Strategy 2020-2023, explore growth opportunities and develop existing and new partnerships with the sector.

After building a successful sales and business career in the City of London, 13 years ago Anna decided to change direction into the Voluntary and Community Sector. Starting from a role in grassroots community engagement, she has since worked in areas of health, poverty, environment, education and migration, gaining an MSc in VCS Studies and becoming an established senior leader in the charity sector.

John is a retired chartered accountant with many years of experience in several sectors. Until recently he was the Chief Finance Officer at HCT Group, a social enterprise in transport industry which provides 30 million passenger trips on its vehicles every year. He successfully led the organisation through two fund raising rounds, the latter of which won an award in 2018 for the best social enterprise finance deal of 2018. John is also on the board of a community transport charity and an education trust.

In the past, John held senior finance positions in a variety of organisations in both the public and private sectors.

James has over 20 years of sales, marketing and leadership experience. After leaving University he worked in educational recruitment for several years before embarking on a highly successful career in the language industry after responding to an advert in a local newspaper. He has held senior positions with two of the largest Global Language companies before leaving the industry in 2019. Since then, he has worked as a consultant before joining TransUnion in 2020 where he provides data, analytics and software to Government clients throughout the UK.

Adrian's background is in human resources where he has held a number of positions leading the human resources function in public, private and third sector organizations. Currently he leads the HR team at The London Clinic the UK's largest independent private hospital. His areas of interest include employment law, organizational development, inclusion and engagement.

Frank Omare brings over 20 years of combined senior line management and 'Big 4' consulting experience in procurement & supply chain. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Purchasing & Supply (FCIPS).

Frank is an Advisory Board Member and mentor of the Migrant Leaders charity, an exciting initiative to support young migrants in the UK in the journey to develop their careers and to realise their life aims. Also, Frank brings his insights, in the area of procurement and supply chain as a mentor on the University of Leeds Alumni Leadership Programme, to guide students as they begin planning their career.

Frank works at SAP Ariba, an SAP Company which has the world's largest cloud-based network for business commerce.

Brandon Perlberg joined the Board of MHTL in 2021. He is a qualified lawyer in multiple jurisdictions in the US and the UK, and practiced as a litigator in New York for five years before moving to London in 2012. He has worked in professional services with EY in the UK for the last 10 years, where his work has focused on areas including forensics, governance, corporate culture and regulatory and public policy. He is currently in role as the Associate Director for Strategy and Markets in EY's Climate Change and Sustainability Services practice.